INTERNSHIP and WORK EXPERIENCE (This includes places you've worked, dates of employment, job duties and accomplishments since high school. You may want to separate your work experiences into different sections; for example, you may have "Internship Experience" listed separately to draw special attention to your relevant work history and list other positions under the heading "Work Experience". To see samples visit our web site at www.ius.edu/CareerServices. List your work experience in reverse chronological order (most recent first). Attempt to select skills and duties that directly relate to the position you are seeking. Supply the following information:

Place of Employment; City, State	Target	Clarksville, IN
Your Job Title & Dates Position Held	Sales Associate	May 2007 – June 2009

List of Duties and Skills using Action Verbs, for example:

- Created a safe and supportive atmosphere
- Maintained highly accurate database for Marketing Department
- Supervised clerical staff of 12 regarding all administrative activities
- Planned and organized special events: concerts, dinners, receptions

Use short phrases, not paragraphs -- may want to use bullet points.

Quantify whenever possible. (less than ten spell out, 10 and above use numbers)

See our web site for link to list of action words: <http://www.ius.edu/careerservices/pdf/ActionVerbList.pdf>

List all the software programs you know and your skill level.

REFERENCES

For this section, simply use a phrase such as "Available upon request." Then, on a SEPARATE sheet of paper, list at least three people who know you well and who are willing to be positive references for you. Ask their permission, and give each of them a copy of your resume as a courtesy. Tell them what kinds of positions you are seeking. If possible, include at least one professional reference (someone who knows about your work habits), at least one education reference (someone who knows about your educational abilities), and at least one personal reference (someone who knows you as a member of the community and can vouch for your character). Be certain that you use the same heading (your name and contact information) on your reference sheet as was used on your resume.

See our web site for sample reference sheet:
